

5 Campus Life and Culture at EAFIT

Campus Environment

EAFIT's campus in Medellín is renowned for its green spaces, modern architecture, and artistic sculptures. The design encourages interaction, creativity, and sustainability, aligning with the city's reputation as an innovation hub.

Student Life

Beyond academics, students engage in cultural, sports, and volunteer activities. The university has student organizations for music, theater, debate, and entrepreneurship, promoting leadership and community engagement.

Facilities and Services

The campus includes advanced laboratories, libraries, sports complexes, and coworking spaces. Students also benefit from counseling, health services, and career guidance provided by the university.

Arts and Culture

EAFIT has a strong artistic tradition, hosting exhibitions, concerts, and theater performances throughout the year. Its Music Department and university orchestra are well-known in the region for promoting cultural outreach.